

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON THE AGING, INC. (NCOA) • EISAI INC. • NATIONAL FAMILY CAREGIVERS ASSOCIATION (NECA)
THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR HOME CARE (NAHC) • NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR CAREGIVING (NAC) • NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA • TOWSONUNIVERSITY • ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION
INTERFAITH CAREGIVERS ALLIANCE • HOSPICE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

CARING TO HELP OTHERS

A Training Manual for Preparing Volunteers to Assist Caregivers of Older Adults

Eisai Inc. (pronounced ā-zī), a research-based, global pharmaceutical company, sponsored the development and distribution of this Training Manual.

Eisai is a human health care company seeking innovative solutions in disease prevention, cure and care for the health and well-being of people worldwide. Eisai marshals its talents to understand and meet the medical needs of patients and their families and to improve the quality of life.

©2000 EISAI INC. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

■ Table of Contents

NOTE: A □ before a listing indicates information that appears within a box in the Section.

	Foreword	xi
	Introduction	xvi
Section 1	How To Use This Training Manual	1
	Purpose of This Training Manual	2
	Who Should Use This Training Manual?	2
	The Responsibilities and Challenges of Your Organization	3
	How To Use This Training Manual	4
	Basic Terminology of Caregiving	5
	Benefits of Training	6
	Legal Notices	6
	Advisory Council Member Organizations and Agencies	7
	Additional Organizations	11
Section 2	Overview of the Aging Process and Related Health Changes and Challenges	13
	Overview	14
	The Value of This Section	15
	Impact of Aging on the Family	16
	Accepting and Coping With the Realities of Aging	17
	□ The Major Health Challenges of Aging	17
	The Need For Sensitivity, Understanding and Respect	18
	Common Diseases of Aging and Their Symptoms	18
	Vision	19–20
	□ Signs of Vision Problems That Should Lead to a Doctor’s Visit	19
	Hearing	21–22
	□ Hearing Loss Symptoms	21
	□ Making Conversations Easier	21
	Touch, Taste and Smell	22
	□ Symptoms Suggesting Problems in the Senses of Touch, Taste and Smell	22
	The Central Nervous System	23–27
	□ Common Indicators of Depression	26

Cancer	27
□ Common Cancers and Their Symptoms	27
□ Symptoms of Chronic Kidney Disease	28
Kidney and Bladder Problems	28–29
□ Symptoms of Kidney Failure	28
□ Types of Incontinence	29
Heart and Blood Vessel Diseases	30–31
□ Types of Heart Diseases	30
□ Symptoms of Heart Disease	31
Lung Disorders	31
□ Symptoms of Pneumonia	31
Bone and Joint Conditions	32–33
□ Types of Arthritis and Their Symptoms	33
Diabetes	34
□ Symptoms of Adult Onset Diabetes	34
Other Changes That Take Place as We Age	34
Conclusion	38
Suggested Training Exercises	38
Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions	43
References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations	53

Section 3	The Decision To Become a Volunteer Support Caregiver	73
	Overview	74
	The Case for More Volunteer Support Caregivers	75
	The Responsibilities and Challenges of Your Organization	76
	What Motivates a Person To Become a Volunteer Support Caregiver?	77
□	Trends in Volunteerism	77
	To Become a Volunteer Support Caregiver: The Importance of the Decision	78
	Most Common Questions Asked by Volunteers	78
□	Generic Job Description of the Volunteer Support Caregiver	81
	Attributes of a Good Volunteer	82
	The Role of the Volunteer Support Caregiver: Psychological and Social Issues	83
	Expectations, Challenges and Dealing With Disappointments	85

□ Volunteer Support Caregivers' Rights	85
The Importance of Clear Communication	86
Volunteer Orientation and Training Considerations	87
□ Assertiveness Tips For Volunteer Caregivers	87
Planning For Greater Volunteer Success and Satisfaction	88
Dealing with Problems	89
Recognition and Rewards	89
Evaluation of Volunteers	89
Suggested Training Exercises	90
Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions	97
References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations	103

Section 4 The Role of the Volunteer Support Caregiver 113

Overview	114
Understanding Caregiver and Care Recipient Needs	116
How Volunteers Can Help	116
□ Common Stress Reactions	116
Caregiver Burnout	120
□ Symptoms of Caregiver Burnout	120
□ The Three Stages of Caregiver Burnout	121
The Benefits of Listening	121
□ Ten Principles of Good Listening	122
□ Active Listening Techniques	123
Volunteer Assignments	124
Job Descriptions	125
Safety Issues	126
□ Household Safety	127
□ Guidelines For Preventing Falls	128
The Importance of Cleaning a Home For Germ Control	129
Hand Washing	130
Additional Precautions Against Infections	131
How To Dispose of Body Wastes	131
Hygiene in the Kitchen	132
□ Tips For Proper Kitchen Hygiene	132
Nutrition and Meals	133
□ Daily Minimum Nutrition Requirements For Older Adults	134

Meal Time Volunteer Support	135
□ Signs Which May Indicate Malnutrition	135
Friendly Visitation and Companionship	136
Respite Care	136
□ Guidelines For Building Positive Relationships	137
Transportation.....	139
□ Guidelines For Transportation Volunteers	140
Hospice Care.....	141
Volunteer Rights and Responsibilities	144
□ Volunteer Support Caregivers' Rights	144
Risk Management	145
□ Assertiveness Tips For Volunteer Caregivers.....	145
Legal Issues For Nonperformance by a Volunteer	146
□ Do's and Don'ts For Reducing Risk of Volunteer Assignments.....	147–148
Guidelines For Emergencies	148
Medications	150
Medications: Questions To Ask.....	151
□ Reasons Why Some People Refuse Medications	151
How a Volunteer Can Help	152
Reading the Label.....	154
Medication Record	154
Medication Schedule.....	155
Storing Medications	155
The Care Plan	156
Organizing Tasks and Activities.....	157
Relating To the Primary Caregiver's Family.....	159
Understanding Other Cultures	161
Cross Cultural Communications	162
Advocacy	163
Volunteer Journal	163
Evaluation of Volunteers.....	164
Suggested Training Exercises	164
Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions	170
References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations	187

Section 5 The Considerations of the Primary Caregiver 193

Overview 194

Challenges of Caregiving 195

- Basic Advice For Volunteers Visiting Older Adults in Care Facilities 198
- Long-Distance Caregiving 199
- Support Provided by Volunteers To Long-distance Caregivers 200

The Emotional Impact on Primary Caregivers 201

The Physical Impact on Primary Caregivers 202

Health Conditions Associated With Stress Experienced by Primary Caregivers 202

Coping and Attitude 203

Primary Caregiver Burnout 205

- The Three Stages of Caregiver Burnout 205
- Symptoms of Caregiver Burnout 206

The Challenges of Caregiving For a Person With a Chronic Disease 207

Time Management 209

Asking For Help 213

Suggested Training Exercises 215

Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions 221

References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations 229

Section 6 Primary Caregiver Responsibilities 237

Overview 238

The Value of This Section 239

The Basics of Caregiving 240

- Changing Sheets For a Bedridden Person 241
- Several Ways To Prevent Pressure Sores 242

The Hospital Bed 242

Safety Issues 243

- General Household Safety Questions 243
- Kitchen Safety 244

Assistive Devices 244

- Household Safety 246

Medical Safety 247

Falling 248

How To Break a Fall 248

When an Older Person Falls	248
□ How To Minimize the Risk of Falls	248
Night Wandering	249
Toileting Needs	249
□ Tips For Safer and Easier Toileting	249
Constipation and Diarrhea	249
Incontinence	251
□ Incontinence Aids	251
□ How To Help an Incontinent Person	252
Toileting a Care Recipient in Bed.....	253
□ Tips For Toileting a Care Recipient in Bed.....	253
Bathing and Basic Hygiene	254
□ Bathing Aids	254
Skin Care	254
Oral Hygiene.....	255
□ Tips For Caring For the Mouth.....	255
Infection Control	256
□ Common Infectious Diseases	257
Hand Washing	258
Additional Precautions Against Infection	258
Cleaning a Home For Germ Control	259
How To Dispose of Body Wastes.....	260
Treating a Wound	260
Hygiene in the Kitchen	261
Nutrition and Meals	262
□ Signs Which May Indicate Poor Nutrition	262
□ Tips For Assisting a Care Recipient With Eating.....	263
Exercise	264
Range of Motion Exercises.....	264
Massage.....	265
Mental “Exercise”	265
Medications	266
□ Storing Medications	266
□ Tips For Taking Medication.....	267
□ Medication Schedule.....	269
□ Reasons Why a Care Recipient Refuses Medications	269
Dealing With Health Care Professionals.....	270
□ Safety Precautions For Oxygen Use	270

The Caregiver’s Relationship With Health Care Professionals	272
Emotional Support	274
Activities To Keep the Older Person Vital and Independent	276
□ Things That Can be Done To Reduce Dependency	276
Financial Management	278
□ Assessing Income and Expenditures	279
Legal Issues	279
Suggested Training Exercises	282
Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions	287
References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations	309
Section 7 Dealing With Relationships and Losses	323
Overview	324
Preparing For Endings	325
When a Care Recipient Recovers	325
The Benefits of Introspection and Self-Knowledge	326
Time To Prepare	327
□ Preparing For a Major Change or Ending To the Volunteer Relationship	327
□ Recommended Steps For Preparing For the End of Caregiver Support Assignments	328
Preparing For the End of the Relationship When the Care Recipient is Dying	329
□ Kübler-Ross: Five Reactions to Terminal Illness	329
□ Preparing For the Ending of the Volunteer Relationship When the Care Recipient is Dying	330
The Nursing Home, Private Residence and Hospice Decisions	331
□ Recommended Action Steps Before a Dying Older Person is Discharged from the Hospital	332
Hospice Care	333
□ How To Create Bedside Comfort For a Dying Person	335
Helping the Care Recipient, Primary Caregiver and the Family	336
□ Tips For Helping To Care For the Dying	336
Discussing Death With Children	337
Cultural, Religious and Spiritual Differences in Dealing With Death and Dying	338

	Near Death Changes in the Care Recipient	341
□	Near Death Changes	341
	The Importance of Visiting an Older Person Who is Near Death	341
□	Signs of Death	341
	When Death Occurs	342
	Grief and the Aftermath	343
□	The Stages of Grief	344
	Coping With Grief	345
	Workplace Issues	346
	Suggested Training Exercise	346
	Suggested Handouts For Training Sessions	352
	References, Resources, Publications and Support Organizations	361
Section 8	Help and Where To Find It	367
	Overview	368
	How To Obtain Information about Local Services and Resources	370
	General Information and Referral	371
	Information, Resources and Services For Care Recipients and Their Primary Caregivers	376
Section 9	Glossaries of Common Terms and Medical Terms	427
	Glossary of Common Terms	428
	Glossary of Medical Terms	435
Section 10	Appendices	453
	Overview	454
	Appendices 1–15 (Sample Volunteer Support Caregiver Job Descriptions)	456–470
	Appendix 16 (Template for Local Listings of Community Organizations and Support Services)	471
	Appendix 17 (Volunteer Journal)	479
	Appendix 18 (Volunteer Service Record)	480
	Appendix 19 (Medication Record)	481
	Appendix 20 (Medication Schedule Table)	482
	Appendix 21 (Personal Information Form/ Document Locator List)	483
Section 11	Index	491